ELEVENTH SEASON

Thirty-Fourth Production

FEBRUARY 4-5-6-7-8, 1958

Presenting the Cast . . .

John Fenn (Arthur Birling) comes to us from Boston, Mass. Presently stationed at Fort Chaffee, John is no novice in the theatrical world. He has had much experience with the Harvard Dramatic Club and did summer stock at the Ogunquit Playhouse in Maine.

Hugh Lunde (Gerald Croft) also stationed at Chaffee, is new among the L.T. group and we're very pleased to have him join the ranks. He worked with drama clubs in both high school and college.

Lois Wanslow (Sheila Birling) is certainly no stranger among us here at the L.T. While attending the U of A, Lois had considerable experience with theatrical groups. Her last appearance with us was in "The Curious Savage."

Kathryn Mendel (Sybil Birling) is a veteran among us, having served in various capacities from acting to general flunkie and has just finished a term as L.T. president. This is Kathryn's first appearance on stage since "Time of the Cuckoo."

Ann Fenn (Edna) is making her debut on stage but is certainly no stranger to the theatrical world. While attending Radcliffe College in Cambridge, Mass., Ann served as musical director and accompanist of Harvard's Hasty Pudding Show.

Brad Kidder (Eric Birling) is making his first appearance with us in this production. A Fort Smith native, Brad attended the U of A and was active in the drama department there. He has just finished serving a tour in the Army.

John Forsyth (Inspector Goole) comes to us from Broken Bow, Nebraska and is presently stationed at Fort Chaffee. He attended the University of Nebraska where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Theatre. John has done everything from directing to "Romeo and Juliet" and "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof."
