CAST NOTES

ART COREY is making his third appearance at FSLT, all within the last 6 months. He is Ken's father. He loves the theatre, is having a ball and never wants to grow up.

CATHERINE BEDELL is an honors student at Southside. She is making her FSLT debut, but has previously appeared in school plays, and in the leading role in the 1980 Children's Theatre production The Indian Captive.

MARK McNEILL AULABAUGH is a Fort Smith transplant from Charleston, West Virginia. He is employed as a news and feature editor for KFPW and KXXI. This is also his FSLT debut, but he appeared in Westark's Nightwatch and in college and public television productions in West Virginia.

STARLETT YARBERRY is a sophomore at Southside who has appeared in productions in all area theatres, including FSLT, Southside, Children's Theatre, and WCC. She has had roles in The Madwoman of Chaillot, The Lark, The King & I, Stop the World, The Emperor's New Clothes, The Indian Captive, and The Mikado.

CARL McCAULEY, a FSLT veteran, works in all areas of the theatre. He has directed 6 Rms Riv Vu and The Sea Horse, and appeared in The Fantasticks, Ten Little Indians, Inherit the Wind, Come Blow Your Horn, The Last Leaf, and Angel Street to mention a few.

KEN COREY describes himself as charming, witty, an honors student, a Key Club member, orchestra member, and interested in football. This is his second play, but first appearance at FSLT. He adds that this is also probably his last, but says he lies a lot, so enjoy.

CONNIE FREEMAN is another true veteran of FSLT. She has been around so long the boards are about worn out under her feet - but the magic is still there. She hopes her participation on the stage pleases the audience as much as they please her.

CINDY CLARK is making her second appearance at FSLT, having been in Private Lives previously here. She is a student and employee at Westark and has appeared in several WCC productions. She is also a member of the King Opera House Players.

NANCY BAKER, an eighth grade student at Chaffin Junior High, is creating her first major role at FSLT. She has been in three previous FSLT productions. Her interests are modeling, talking on the phone, and dancing.

JAY JONES is a FSHS graduate of 1935. After WW II he worked at Dixie Cup and has been transferred to New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Connecticut in the past 20 years. He has now retired and come back home.
