Director's Note:

Each time I have directed a musical at the Fort Smith Little Theatre, it seems as though there is a special zeal attached to the project that makes it particularly meaningful. The same can certainly be said of White Christmas — I don't remember there being a time ever, when I didn't know that song by heart! It certainly was very early in my life when that wonderful movie became an important part of my personal holiday celebrations.

No doubt in the coming weeks we will all hear this song — in stores, on the radio, over television broadcasts, etc... I have no idea how many different singers have recorded White Christmas down through the years — but I know that I have heard virtually hundreds of interpretations! However, you as patrons of FSLT can smile a special, inward smile, knowing that you have had the stage experience that will make the music and lyrics of this song extra special this year. You will have had it brought to life for you by the my talented cast and crew who have dedicated the preparation time for your holiday enjoyment, and be a little more keenly aware of the circumstances under which this song came to achieve its iconic status.

Enjoy the performance, and may your days be merry and bright!
